

Destiny's Club Mutt Medication Agreement

The following agreement is between Destiny's Club Mutt and the owner/agent of the pet indicated below. By signing below, the owner understands and agrees to the following terms and conditions:

Pet owner understands all medications and supplements need to be in the original packaging. Packaging must be clearly labeled, by owner, with pets' name, dosage and instructions for administering. Medication will not be administered without clearly labeled, original packaging or prescription.

Pet owner understands medication instructions will be entering in Destiny's Club Mutt software by the owner of the pet. Instructions in software need to match instructions on medication label or package.

Pet owner agrees to provide special treat for oral medications if required.

Destiny's Club Mutt does not have a veterinarian on staff. Therefore, cannot administer injectable medications without prior approval.

Destiny's Club Mutt CANNOT administer any medications for sedation or "calming" without written prescription from pets' veterinarian AND written authorization from owner.

By signing, pet owner has read and agrees to the above terms and authorizes Destiny's Club Mutt and staff to administer medications provided. This includes prescriptions, over the counter medications, supplements and/or any medications not labeled for pet use (ie. Allergy medications labeled for humans). Pet owner agrees to allow non-medical professionals administer medications or supplements as instructed and can only be administered to cooperative pets. Pet owner agrees to provide written prescription from pets' veterinarian for any sedation, "calming", medications, prescriptions or supplements, as well as written authorization from owner, without prescription and authorization, these medications will NOT be administered.
